

Sava partners with LionHeart

Sava is very happy to have partnered with LionHeart, the charity for RICS professionals, to provide you with support from the very start of your journey into surveying.

LionHeart supports the surveying community throughout your training, future career and into retirement.

As a Sava student, you will be able to access the following services:

- Webinars

A range of approved-for-CPD online learning specially designed to support your wellbeing, personal and career development <https://www.lionheart.org.uk/events>

- Coaching

One-to-one professional coaching to help you in certain situations, for example to reach a certain goal, develop your confidence or cope better with work/study-related stress <https://www.lionheart.org.uk/coaching>

- Legal advice

Access to a free legal helpline for initial advice on any legal issues you might have <https://www.lionheart.org.uk/legal-helpline>

- Counselling support

Access to a counselling support line <https://www.lionheart.org.uk/counselling> which is free to use and can be contacted by calling in confidence on 0121 289 3300 or 0800 009 2960.

Below are some suggested courses that may be useful throughout your studies with Sava. You can also see what else is available by clicking on the links above or visiting the Lionheart website.

To book on any course please click on <https://www.lionheart.org.uk/events> choose your date and then use the 'click here to book' link under each course. Choose the RICS Member option and add yourself as 1 attendee and add to basket. When you are ready to confirm click onto the basket at the top of the screen and checkout.

You will then need to create a Lionheart account. Please follow and complete the fields making sure that you include Sava at the end of your name, this will denote that you are a Sava learner. You will note that at the bottom of the account page it will ask for an optional donation, Sava will make donations for you. You are of course welcome to make extra donations should you wish to.

Lionheart is a charity and you can find out more about their work
